Six Bypasses Changed Everything.

Three years ago I was pushing light snow in my driveway and couldn't catch my breath. I was 53 years old. Thought I was holding up okay. Went in for a stress test — they said I needed one stent. When they got in there, the story was different. A week later I had six bypasses.

Six bypasses. Six kids. Seven grandchildren. That kind of moment doesn't just make you think about your health — it makes you think about every choice you've been making for the last 30 years.

I've been an entrepreneur most of my life. I help people solve marketing problems. I evaluate systems for a living — what holds up, what fails, what's worth the investment. I'm also a 37-year married man and an Air Force veteran. I don't scare easy and I don't buy things without looking at them hard first.

After the surgery, I applied that same thinking to my health. A friend introduced me to LiveGood. I looked at the products, looked at the pricing, looked at what I was already spending on supplements every month — and the math was obvious.

"I'm not here to sell you something. I'm here because I found something worth sharing — and because at 240 lbs with a bypass scar on my chest, I have good reasons to get this right."

I'm sharing this because you might be in a similar spot. Maybe you're already buying supplements and spending too much. Maybe someone in your family had a health scare. Maybe you're just tired of paying retail for things that should cost half as much.

Whatever brought you here — keep reading. The next few pages will show you exactly what I found and why it made sense for a guy like me.

You're Already Buying This Stuff. Stop Overpaying for It.

Most people reading this already spend money on supplements, greens, protein, or coffee every single month. The question isn't whether you'll keep buying them — you will. The question is what you're paying.

LiveGood eliminates the middleman. You pay $9.95 a month for a membership. In return, you get pricing that's typically 50–75% below what you'd pay anywhere else for the same category of product.

Product	Retail Price	Member Price	You Save
Organic Coffee (30 srv)	$34.00	$12.00	65% off
Super Greens	$62.00	$18.00	71% off
Complete Multivitamin	$44.00	$18.00	59% off
D3/K2 2000	$26.00	$10.00	62% off
Sleep Support	$36.00	$12.00	67% off
Sample Order Total	$202.00	$70.00	$132 saved

Add the $9.95 membership to that $70.00 order and you still spent $79.95 versus $202.00 at retail. The membership pays for itself the moment you place your first order — and every month after that is pure savings.

The 90-Day Papa Fuel Challenge.

I'm going to be straight with you. I'm not going to tell you I've already transformed my health and lost 60 pounds. I haven't. I'm at 240 lbs and I need to get to a healthy 180.

What I'm doing is using these products — the coffee every morning, the greens, adding more as I go — and I'm documenting what actually changes. Real weight. Real energy. Honest updates. If something doesn't work I'll tell you that too.

I have seven grandchildren I want to be running around with for a long time. That's not a marketing line. That's just true.

If you want to do this alongside me — here's how:

One more thing — and only if it's relevant to you.

Some people who join as members eventually start telling others about it. Not because they feel obligated — because the savings are real and people notice. When your friend asks what you're taking and where you got it, your referral link is worth real money. You earn 50% of the difference between retail and member pricing every time they order. Not once — every order.

That's not a recruiting pitch. That's just what happens when a good product at a good price gets in front of the right people. We'll show you more about that side of things at savelivegrow.com when and if you're ever curious.
